Autobiographical Memory

What is Autobiographical Memory ?

Autobiographical Memory

What is Autobiographical Memory Specificity?

What is the research paper all about?

- What is emotional disorder?
- Recalling specific autobiographical memories (and events)
- Are they both correlated?

This paper discusses this from the point of view of both brain as well as cognitive mechanisms.

What is the research paper all about?

2 theories

- Idiosyncratic activation in regions of brain associated with assigning salience and self-relevance to emotional memories.
- Regions associated with inhibiting distraction and constructing vivid memory representation are also important.
